Dedication

To Mrs. Murphy, Mr. Kettler, and Mr. Shaw we dedicate this Annual in appreciation of their wise guidance of us through our school years, their patience with us in the classroom and above all their willingness to become friends to the many students who come to them.

"The Class of 55"

Foreword

Our goal in putting out this edition of The Blue and Gold is to try to capture and preserve a bit of the life and activities during our school days. We sincerely hope that in the years to come this volume will recall to the present student body the happy times and loyal friendships.

If we succeed in doing this, we have reached our goal.

Superintendent

Seniors:

When I came to Jackson-Liberty school the present Senior Class were Freshmen. It has been an interesting experience to watch you develop from Freshmen to Seniors. Since it is the desire of us teachers to see each and every one of our Seniors succeed, I would like to offer the following advice:

1. Always keep faith in God.
2. Always keep a desire to learn.
3. Always have respect for authority.
4. Respect your elders—older people may not have college degrees, but many of their "degrees" were never awarded but earned by hard experience.
5. Many doors to success are opened by only one key—"hard work."

Best Wishes for a prosperous and successful life.

—Mr. Fisher

Principal

Seniors:

Congratulations to each member of the class of 1955. You will always be remembered for your friendliness, leadership, and cooperation.

We hope that you have profited by your educational training and that your experience will serve as guide posts for you in the years ahead.

It is my sincere wish that you may achieve the goals to which you aspire. May you each strive to make a valuable contribution to the community in which you live.

Best Wishes for a successful life in every respect.

—Mr. Shaw

Board of Education

The Board of Education in our state is elected by the people of the school district and it is their responsibility to see that the instructors and equipment are provided to properly educate the youth of the district. These men have a difficult office to fill since they have no specific training for their position, receive no salary, receive only token expense money and receive too many times more destructive criticism than constructive criticism.

We, the senior class of 1955, thank these men for their unselfish efforts to help provide us with an education. They have done well with the finances that the people of our community have given them.

Even though we will not be in school to use it, we are pleased to see that we are going to receive a new addition—the first addition since original construction 33 years ago.

Good luck and may God bless you in your efforts to provide future seniors with a good education.

Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1955, Jackson-Liberty High School, City of Amsden, Seneca County, State of Ohio, being of sound mind and good health, realize that our school days are coming to an end, and do hereby lay down our last will and testament before the eyes of the public to the said person or persons as follows:

First: To Jackson-Liberty High School we leave our ability to work as a small class and to achieve many scholastic rewards and have many honor students.

Second: To the faculty we leave our troubles over the past years to be divided evenly among them.

To the Junior Class we do will and bequeath our success in putting out an annual.

To the Sophomore Class we do will and bequeath our success in marriages.

To the Freshman Class we do will and bequeath our ability to have as high a scholastic standing and as many students in the honor society.

Third: To Mr. Fisher we do will and bequeath two more teachers during the month of December. That is if he needs them.

To Mr. Shaw we do will and bequeath another progressive Democracy Class.

To Mr. Kettler we do will and bequeath another money making home room class.

To Mr. Bricker we do will and bequeath a quiet 2nd period study hall.

To Mrs. Murphy we do will and bequeath a typing class that can do something besides put out the Newshound.

To Mr. Shreve we do will and bequeath another large Agriculture Class.

To Mrs. Shreve we do will and bequeath another energetic Chemistry Class (next year's.)

To Miss Huff we do will and bequeath five good trumpet players with soft and mellow tones.

To Mrs. Kettler, the secretary, we do will and bequeath a class that can pay for the American Observors on time.

To Mrs. Gardner we do will and bequeath an American Literature Class that can spout Carl Sandburg fluently.

To Mr. Bowersox we do will and bequeath a state winner next year.

To the cooks we do will and bequeath 13 more dirty trays.

To the janitor we do will and bequeath next year's home rooms to be as clean as our Senior Class home room this year.

To next year's cheerleaders we do will and bequeath all the muscles of our two cheerleaders, I.R.K. and R.A.S.

I, Dick Blake, do will and bequeath my straight A's (?) in bookkeeping to Harry Hawk.

I, Virginia Brickner, do will and bequeath my tight skirts to Sonja Kissling.

I, Irvin Butler, do will and bequeath my ability to go steady to Joe Dennis.

I, Don Graber, do will and bequeath my ability to sell ads (to anyone except my Dad) to any Junior boy.

I, Dave Hedden, do will and bequeath my basketball ability to anyone who likes the sport as much as I do. I also will our Mercury to Mr. Bowersox so he can push his Chevies next winter.

I, Mary Kettler, do will and bequeath my ability to squeak on my clarinet to Darlene Kline.

I, Ina Rae Kissling, do will and bequeath the mimeograph machine to Evelyn and next year's Newshound staff, providing they can keep their hands clean.

I, Gene Meyer, do will and bequeath two more of my teeth to anyone who gets theirs knocked out, and my jump shot in basketball to anyone who needs it.

I, Ruth Ann Striff, do will and bequeath my shortness to Zebb Hatfield.

I, Edward Vallier, do will and bequeath my ability to stay home at night to my brother.

I, Arlene Walters, do will and bequeath my ability to ballet to Herbie Beckhusen.

I, Richard Watkins, do will and bequeath my temper to Jim Stearns, and my violence to Leonard Hatfield.

I, Frank Young, do will and bequeath my excellent safe driving to anyone who thinks his life is going to be short.

Our last request is that our last will and testament be kept sacred and honorable.

TWO CLASSMATES MEET ON ROUTE 12

Two cars were involved in a collision on State Route 12 early yesterday evening.

Dave Hedden, owner of the Amsden Branch of Lincoln-Mercury Motor Sales, collided with a car driven by Miss Virginia Brickner of Fostoria. Neither Miss Brickner nor Mr. Hedden was injured.

After considerable investigation, State Patrolman Meyer stated that the accident was caused by the brake failure of Miss Brickner's car. Miss Brickner was fined $25 in costs by Judge Edward Vallier.

Both cars were enroute to the Jackson-Liberty High School Alumni Banquet, where Miss Brickner was to speak on "Safety On The Highway."

GOVERNOR SPEAKS AT ALUMNI BANQUET

Republican Governor Donald D. Graber was speaker at the annual Alumni Banquet held at the high school last night. Governor Graber related in his address how he decided to enter politics as the result of long dissatisfaction with the former legislature.

CELEBRITIES VISIT TOWN FOR BANQUET

Ina Rae Kissling, famous T.V. comedienne, kept everyone in a party mood with her witty imitations and songs.

Music was furnished by Mary Kettler's all-girl Orchestra. Unfortunately both Miss Kissling and Miss Kettler had to leave early to catch a plane for New York where they were to appear early on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town."

Frank Young, Amsden druggist, was voted Alumni president for the coming year. Judge Vallier was named secretary-treasurer.

Admiral Blake, famed for his work with atomic submarines, joined Master Sergeant Watkins and Corporal Butler in New York. The trio boarded a jet plane and arrived yesterday morning in Amsden with their beautiful blonde wives.

Wealthy society woman, Miss Ruth Ann Striff, arrived in a private plane Monday. Accompanying her was Broadway Dance Star, Arlene Walters.

P.T.A. OFFICERS

The P.T.A. again sponsored the annual Jackson-Liberty School Fair. The Fair showed an increase in exhibits and we believe it will continue to grow. We hope that next year the people will make it bigger and better than ever before.

Another fine minstrel was presented by the P.T.A. this year. Everyone had a wonderful time, the cast had a lot of fun at rehearsals, and we hope to have more minstrels in years to come.

The Association purchased reading circle books for the school, band uniforms, and play ground equipment.

We hope that this organization will continue to bring about better parent and teacher relationship and that the friends, teachers and parents will continue to support its activities in future years so that it can carry on the same fine work that it has accomplished in the past.

We think the Student Council has had a successful and profitable year. This year we had the best magazine sales campaign in recent years.

The Athletic Banquet, which took place on April 5, was an outstanding event for the cheerleaders and players.

Our customary duties this year included: purchase and decoration of the Christmas Tree, election of cheerleaders, approval of class budgets, and the never to be forgotten Freshman Initiation.

Sunbonnet Sue

"The Sunbonnet Girl" was presented by the Jackson-Liberty Music Department Thursday and Friday evenings, March 17 and 18 for public enjoyment. The leading roles were played by Ruth Ann Striff, Sunbonnet Sue and Peter LePage playing the part of Bob.

The story takes place in the garden of the Meadows' Home. Susan Clifton, the Sunbonnet Girl, is the orphaned child of musical parents. She has been left in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Scroggs a skinflint couple who have starved and stinted her. As the play opens, Mrs. Henry Coleman, the president of the State Federation of Music Clubs, arrives in the village to conduct a contest for certain scholarships in music. She is accompanied by her daughter Barbara, her son Bob, and his chum Jerry. On learning of the contest, Sue timidly approaches the ladies in charge and asks to be allowed to take part. They are willing, but Mrs. Scroggs harshly refuses to allow it, insisting that she is needed for the endless dish washing of the Scroggs' household. Sue is discouraged, but on meeting Barbara, Bob, and Jerry, she tells her story and enlists their sympathy and support. They enter her name on the contest program. She sings her solo and is immediately awarded the prize.

Bob Coleman carried away by her beauty and charm, immediately offers his heart and hand, but Sue, supposing that his interest is based on sympathy for her poverty and misfortune, refuses to listen, saying that she would be willing to consider him if only she were wealthy and independent. Bob goes in quest of the Constable, and meanwhile Jerry and Barbara come to a romantic agreement. The proof of property removes the barrier to the match, and the curtain falls on the prospect of a double wedding.

Miss Huff worked for weeks with the students to produce this operetta, but we feel as if it was well worth our efforts after being such a hit for two nights. The scenery was very cleverly painted by Mr. Kettler. It added the final touch to the whole show. The costuming was very outstanding with all the girls making sunbonnets to match their dresses.

Miss Huff

This is Miss Huff's fourth year at Jackson-Liberty and a very successful one as far as her accomplishments are concerned.

She has successfully directed two Operettas, grade and high school, she has increased the band and also prepared them for many outside parades and all-county activities. She has given private lessons and also helped the music contestants achieve winning honors in the contests.

All this has been done without her never failing to conduct her regular vocal classes.

We wish to thank her for sacrificing her time and abilities, but most of all for making the J.L. music department one of the most outstanding in Seneca County.

SEATED: Lora Lee McNally, Jane Roberts, Janice Stull, Christine Decker, Connie Matthews.
SECOND ROW: Sandra Jones, Ruth Ann Striff, Jerry Bowersox, Linda Cramer, Kay Yoakum, Larry Stull, Sandra Sayre, Ruth Ann Shaferly, Virginia Fisher.
THIRD ROW: Jean Lanning, Betty Shultz, Joanne McKinney, Bonnie Shultz, Sue Compton, Mary Kettler, Darlene Kline, Peggy Meyer, Frances Kettler, Rose Ann Lucius, Carolyn Hinsman, Annette Moes, Mary Fisher, Ronnie Krupp, Miss Huff, Ruth Edinger.
FOURTH ROW: Ronnie Roberts, Eddie Wilcox, Peter LePage, Fred Smith, Paula Beckhusen, Herbert Beckhusen, John Masters, Bill Peeler, Gerald Reidling, Betty McKinney, David Shreve.

The Jackson-Liberty Band consisting of 38 members is an organization that has been very active this year. Our first big day during the summer was on June 17th when we went to the Fireman's Convention at Ada, Ohio. What a day! Hot uniforms, tired feet, and 38 thirsty band members. In July we played at the Firemen's Ice Cream Social at Kansas. August was a very busy month for we played at the Attica Fair, Seneca County Fair, and three nights in the Centennial in Fostoria. In October we marched in the Halloween Parade in Fostoria. On a cold, cold day in December we participated in the Christmas Parade at Tiffin. During basketball season we made quite a hit for we had several band shows on the floor with formations. We received many compliments and hope that next year we can make better formations on a new floor.

Double Sextette

SEATED: Miss Huff, Bonnie Shultz.
ROW TWO: Betty Ritter, Carolyn Hinsman, Ruth Ann Striff, Laura Lee McNally, Betty Shultz, Ina Rae Kissling, Evelyn Miller, Gail Ecker, Connie Matthews.
ROW THREE: Kay Yoakum, Virginia Brickner.

The Music Department would not be complete without a girls ensemble. This year for the first time Miss Huff has arranged a double sextet. These twelve young ladies have had a lot of fun together working on their numbers. They have sung for several school functions and also performed outside of the Community.

Clarinet Quartet

Sandra Jones, Frances Kettler, Miss Huff, Darlene Kline, Mary Kettler.

These four outstanding girls in the Music Department have done remarkably well this year. They entered the Music Contests in the Spring and to date received I rating in the Clinic as well as I rating on individual solos. These girls were highly praised by the judges showing that contests are well worth the time that must be given. The Quartet will be a trio next year for our first clarinet player, Mary Kettler, will be leaving to study music at B. G. Best of luck, Mary!

INDIVIDUAL EVENTS

SEATED: Maryetta Loomis, Joanne McKinney, Arlene Walter, Joan Sabo, Paula Beckhusen.
ROW ONE: Ed Vallier, Evelyn Miller, Mrs. Gardner, Connie Matthews, Gail Ecker, Donald Graber.

Peter LePage and Maryetta Loomis placed first in the two local Prince of Peace contests. Arlene Walters and Darlene Kline placed second.

Don Graber won second place in the Extemporaneous Event at Old Fort and was selected to go to Columbus. Ed Vallier was fourth and was named as alternate in Extemporaneous, and Gail Ecker placed fourth in Original Oratory and was named alternate also. These three later represented Jackson-Liberty at Columbus in the finals.

One Act Play

LEFT TO RIGHT: Connie Matthews, Edward Vallier, Dick Blake.

In The Wedding Present by William Carson, presented on March 24th at the P.T.A. and on March 30th at Republic in the One Act Play Contest. Carrie (played by Connie Matthews) and Bob Gordon (Dick Blake) are newlyweds. A dinner guest, Jim Dixon, (Ed Vallier) is coming. Carrie has lost her list of wedding presents and doesn't know what Jim gave them. In fact, she doesn't know what anyone gave them. She and Bob try to decide what Jim might have chosen, but they can't agree and only get into an argument. Jim arrives in a befuddled state because he has forgotten what his sister bought as his gift to the Gordens. In the confusion Jim admits giving two different presents, neither of which turns out to be his gift. Finally a phone call to Jim's sister clears the air and all three are relieved though somewhat surprised to find that the monstrosity they received, "neither useful nor artistic," is an artichoke-dish.

Junior Class Play

On May 6th the Junior Class presented the play It Might Happen to You, written by Robert Ray. In this farce-comedy a meek, hard-working young man, Victor Johnson, has a sister-in-law and wife to look out for. One day on the way home from work he is hit on the head by a heavy suitcase thrown from a passing car. The suitcase is found to contain a fortune in bills. Is it stolen money?

Victor soon discovers that he looks like Doc Miller, a notorious racketeer who has just returned from Europe, that there is some sort of gang warfare going on in which he becomes involved, and that a baby has been kidnapped. To add to all of his troubles, his employer comes to visit him on a day when he had called the office and said he was sick. Really he was trying to get rid of the money and straighten out his involved life. Finally, with help from the police the money is returned, the baby found, the mother-in-law put in her place; and when Victor is forgiven by his wife, peace once again reigns.

Senior Class Play

LEFT TO RIGHT: Ina Rae Kissling, Mary Kettler, Ruth Ann Striff, Don Graber.

This is Mrs. Gardner's first year at Jackson-Liberty, and she has proved herself to be quite capable of directing the Junior Class Play, the Senior Class Play, and the One Act Play. She also instructed the individuals who took part in Prince of Peace and Individual Events. The students of Jackson-Liberty wish to extend to her our appreciation for the assistance and co-operation she has given us during the past year.

Mrs. Gardner

Jackson-Liberty seniors presented their class play "Aaron Slick from Punkin Crick" to a very appreciative audience in the school auditorium on October 22, 1954. This three act comedy has set many an audience laughing in recent years. The story centers on crafty farmer Aaron Slick (played by Don Graber) and his efforts to save widow Rosa Berry's (Mary Kettler) farm from the clutches of a speculator from the city, Wilbur Merridew (Edward Vallier) who, with the help of his niece, Gladys Merridew (Ruth Ann Striff) tries to get the farm with its oil for very little cash. Mrs. Berry has always yearned for city life and Aaron has always yearned for courage to ask for Mrs. Berry's hand. Just as Aaron gathers courage with help from Little Sis Riggs, loyal Tomboy assistant in the Berry household (Ina Rae Kissling), Merridew buys the farm and Mrs. Berry and Sis leave to seek the gaiety of city life. A breezy young man who is not as naive as his name Clarence Green (Gene Meyer) would suggest has appeared in the meantime asking some questions about Merridew. Things get terribly confused in a Chicago cabaret a year later when Aaron is almost "slicked" out of his money by a dancer (Arlene Walters) and Mrs. Berry sees visions of jail for her future because there is no oil on her farm. Merridew is out to sue for his money because of a sale under "false pretenses." Just in time Clarence Green puts off his waiter's disguise and arrests Merridew for a former crime. Sis and Mrs. Berry are tired of city life and city clothes and eager to go back to the farm. Aaron at last takes courage, asks Rosy to become his wife and is rewarded with a "Yes."

Peter LePage and Gerald Reidling played a trumpet duo in the cabaret scene in the third act while Paula Beckhusen, Connie Matthews, Harry Hawk, and Dick Watkins appeared as hotel guests.

Backstage, managers Dick Blake and Dick Watkins were particularly busy taking care of the cat which chased the mouse in Act I. Between acts a vocal soloist and double sextet entertained the audience.

The cast presented gifts to Mrs. Juanita Gardner, director, and to Connie Matthews, prompter.
